 2. The Company carried out a consolidation of share at the ratio of 10 shares to 1 share on October 1, 2018. Basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share have been calculated on the assumption that the said consolidation of share was carried out at the beginning of the year ended March 31, 2017.
 3. In the calculation of profit (loss) per share, the Company's shares remaining in the Board Benefit Trust (BBT), which are recorded as treasury stock under shareholders' equity, are included in the treasury stocks that are deducted in the calculation of the average number of shares in the period.
 4. The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries have adopted "Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition" (ASBJ Statement No.29, March 31, 2020) from the beginning of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022. As such, financial position for the year ended March 31, 2022 is calculated after adoption of its accounting policy.

Overview of Consolidated Results by Division

(April 1, 2021 to March 31, 2022)

The many different electronic components that SMK produces are widely used by electronics manufacturers in and outside Japan. The markets for these components can be broadly classified into four markets: ICT Market, Home Appliance Market, Car Electronics Market and Industry Market.

Two divisions, namely CS (Connection System) Division and SCI (Sensing, Communications and Interface) Division, as well as Research & Development Center, are responsible for developing products that continually meet market requirements in the wide range of markets outlined above. The two divisions handle operations ranging from product planning and design to mass production, whereas Research & Development Center is primarily in charge of designing and developing products in new fields.

In this section, we present an overview of our results achieved in each of the two divisions and Research & Development Center in the fiscal year under review.

Sales by Division

Others: businesses of other electronic parts, lease, real-estate rental, and worker dispatching undertakings.

Sales by Market

Others: markets of medical equipment, rehabilitation equipment, etc.

CS (Connection System) Division

Major Products

- Connectors (Coaxial, FPC)
- Jacks

In the car electronics market, sales of mainstay connectors for cameras were firm, and orders for connectors for electrical devices grew steadily, exceeding those of the previous year. In the home appliance market, sales exceeded those of the previous year due to the adoption of connectors for digital cameras and an increase in orders of connectors for VR. On the other hand, in the ICT market, sales of connectors for tablet devices of US customers remained at the same level as the previous fiscal year affected by the impact of production adjustments due to a shortage of semiconductors. In addition, sales of connectors for smartphones fell below those of the previous year due to a decrease in production by some Chinese customers caused by difficulties in obtaining semiconductors.

As a result, net sales of CS Division amounted to ¥19,543 million (1.5% decrease year on year), and operating income was ¥1,036 million (28.3% decrease year on year).

Net sales / Operating income

SCI (Sensing, Communications and Interface) Division

Major Products

- Remote Control Units
- Switches
- Camera Modules
- Touch Sensors

In the car electronics market, orders for camera modules, control units, touch sensors, etc. were strong due to the recovery of car production mainly in the U.S. and sales exceeded those of the previous year. Sales of switches for wearable devices in the ICT market and touch sensors for office machines in the industry market were strong and exceeded those of the previous year. On the other hand, in the mainstay home appliance market, sales of units for home equipment and remote control units for air conditioners exceeded those of the previous year, but sales of remote control units for set-top boxes decreased and fell below those of the previous year.

As a result, net sales of SCI Division amounted to ¥28,387 million (0.2% decrease year on year), and operating loss was ¥135 million (compared to operating loss of ¥72 million in the previous fiscal year).

Net sales / Operating loss

Research & Development Center

Major Products

- Wireless Modules

Regarding Bluetooth® modules, the central product of Research & Development Center's mainstay wireless communication module businesses, the markets for payment terminals, mobile printers and medical devices have been expanding. However, Research & Development Center was not able to secure ICs due to a shortage of semiconductors, and although sales slightly exceeded those of the previous year, the target value was not reached.

As a result, net sales of Research & Development Center amounted to ¥309 million (8.2% increase year on year), and operating loss was ¥196 million (compared to an operating loss of ¥294 million in the previous fiscal year).

 2. The Company carried out a consolidation of share at the ratio of 10 shares to 1 share on October 1, 2018. Basic earnings per share and diluted earnings per share have been calculated on the assumption that the said consolidation of share was carried out at the beginning of the years ended March 31, 2017.
 3. In the calculation of profit (loss) per share, the Company's shares remaining in the Board Benefit Trust (BBT), which are recorded as treasury stock under shareholders' equity, are included in the treasury stocks that are deducted in the calculation of the average number of shares in the period.
 4. The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries have adopted "Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition" (ASBJ Statement No.29, March 31, 2020) from the beginning of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022. As such, financial position for the year ended March 31, 2022 is calculated after adoption of its accounting policy.

SMK's net sales for the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022 decreased 0.7% year on year to ¥48,243 million (US$394,174 thousand), and operating income of ¥703 million (US$5,744 thousand) and profit attributable to owners of parent of ¥2,992 million (US$24,446 thousand) were recorded.

Net Sales

In the car electronics market, sales increased from the previous fiscal year due to the recovery of car production mainly in China and the U.S, but sales in the ICT and home appliance markets decreased from the previous fiscal year due to production adjustments and a decline in demand caused by a shortage of semiconductors plaguing major customers.

As a result, net sales were ¥48,243 million (US$394,174 thousand), down 0.7% year on year.

Operating Income

Despite our efforts such as proactive launch of new products and initiatives taken to reduce costs, operating income amounted to ¥703 million (US$5,744 thousand) due to the impact of soaring raw material prices and a decrease in sales.

Profit attributable to owners of parent

Profit attributable to owners of parent was ¥2,992 million (US$24,446 thousand) as a result of recording rent income/expense, foreign exchange gains, subsidies for employment adjustment, etc. in other income/expenses.

Total Net Assets / ROE

As of March 31, 2022, total net assets were ¥30,643 million (US$250,372 thousand), with ROE of 10.2%.

Total Assets / ROA

As of March 31, 2022, total assets were ¥54,794 million (US$447,700 thousand), with ROA of 6.5%.

Cash Flows

Net cash provided by operating activities amounted to ¥2,433 million (US$19,879 thousand), net cash used in investing activities totaled ¥1,631 million (US$13,326 thousand), and net cash used in financing activities was ¥971 million (US$7,934 thousand).

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

SMK Corporation and Consolidated Subsidiaries

Note 1. Summary of significant accounting policies

- (a) Basis of presenting financial statements
The accompanying consolidated financial statements of SMK Corporation (the "Company") and consolidated subsidiaries are prepared on the basis of accounting principles generally accepted in Japan, which are different in certain respects as to the application and disclosure requirements of International Financial Reporting Standards, and are compiled from the consolidated financial statements prepared by the Company as required by the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act of Japan. For the purpose of this document, certain reclassifications have been made in the accompanying consolidated financial statements to facilitate understanding by readers outside Japan. In addition, certain reclassifications have been made to the prior year's consolidated financial statements to conform to the current year's presentation.
- (b) Basis of consolidation and investments in affiliated companies
The accompanying consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its subsidiaries over which substantial control is exercised either through majority ownership of voting stock and/or by other means. All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. Certain foreign subsidiaries' fiscal period ends on December 31, which differs from the year-end date of the Company; however, the financial statements of these companies were tentatively closed as of March 31 and necessary adjustments for consolidation were made. Investments in affiliates (companies over which the Company has the ability to exercise significant influence) are accounted for by the equity method. Consolidated profit attributable to owners of parent includes the Company's equity in the current profit attributable to owners of parent or loss of such companies, after the elimination of unrealized intercompany profits. All assets and liabilities of the Company's subsidiaries are revalued at the acquisition, if applicable, and the excess of cost over the underlying net assets at the date of acquisition is amortized over a period of five years on a straight-line basis if such excess is material, or charged to income when incurred if immaterial.
- (c) Scope of consolidation
Number of consolidated subsidiaries: 25
- (d) Application of equity method of accounting
Number of affiliated companies accounted for using the equity method: 1
- (e) Translation of foreign currencies
Receivables and payables denominated in foreign currencies are translated into yen at the appropriate closing rate at the end of the reporting period, and differences arising from the translation are included in the consolidated statement of income. All asset and liability accounts of foreign subsidiaries and affiliates are translated into Japanese yen at the appropriate closing rate at the end of the reporting period. Revenue and expense accounts are translated at the average rates of exchange prevailing during the year. Differences arising from the translation are presented as foreign currency translation adjustments in the consolidated financial statements.
- (f) Cash and cash equivalents
Cash and cash equivalents consist of cash on hand, cash in banks which can be withdrawn at any time and short-term investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased which can easily be converted to cash and are subject to little risk of change in value.
- (g) Inventories
Inventories are mainly stated at the lower of cost or market. The following inventories are measured principally by their respective methods:
Finished products: Retail cost method
Work in process: Actual raw material cost, determined by the most recent purchase cost method, plus direct labor costs and manufacturing overheads
Raw materials and supplies: Most recent purchase cost method
Consolidated subsidiaries adopt mainly the moving average method.
- (h) Securities
Marketable securities classified as other securities are carried at fair value with any changes in unrealized holding gain or loss, net of the applicable income taxes, included directly in net assets. Non-marketable securities classified as other securities are carried at cost. Cost of securities sold is determined by the moving average method.
- (i) Derivatives
Derivatives are stated at fair value.
- (j) Property, plant and equipment and depreciation (except for leased assets, Right of use assets)
Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation of property, plant and equipment is calculated principally by the declining-balance method for the Company and its domestic subsidiaries, and by the straight-line method mainly for foreign subsidiaries. Certain buildings of the Company and its domestic subsidiaries acquired on or after April 1, 1998 and facilities attached to buildings and other non-building structures acquired on or after April 1, 2016 are depreciated by the straight-line method. The estimated useful lives of the assets are as follows:
Buildings: 10 to 50 years
Machinery and vehicles: 4 to 10 years
Tooling and office furniture: 2 to 6 years
The residual values of the property, plant and equipment acquired on or before March 31, 2007 are depreciated equally over a period of 5 years starting from the year following the year in which they have been depreciated up to their depreciable limit or 5% of the acquisition cost.
- (k) Intangible assets (except for leased assets)
Amortization of intangible assets is calculated by the straight-line method. Software for own use is amortized based on the utilizable period (5 years).

- ( l ) Leased assets
Noncancellable lease transaction that transfer substantially all risks and rewards associated with the ownership of assets are accounted for as finance leases. Depreciation of leased assets is calculated by the straight-line method based on the lease life as the useful life and the residual value is zero.
- ( m ) Right of use assets
Depreciation of right of use assets is calculated by the straight-line method based on the lease term as the useful life and the residual value is zero.
- ( n ) Allowance for doubtful accounts
The allowance for doubtful accounts is provided based on past experience for normal receivables and on an estimate of the collectability of receivables from companies in financial difficulty.
- ( o ) Accrued bonus
Accrued bonuses are provided on the estimate of the amounts to be paid in the future by the Company, domestic consolidated subsidiaries and certain overseas subsidiaries based on an accrual basis at the balance sheet date.
- ( p ) Accrued directors' and officers' bonuses
Accrued directors' and officers' bonuses are provided on the estimate of the amounts to be paid subsequent to the balance sheet date.
- ( q ) Accrued directors' and officers' retirement benefits
Accrued directors' and officers' retirement benefits have been provided at an amount equal to 100% of the amount which would be required to be paid based on the Company's bylaws if all directors and officers resigned from the Company on the balance sheet date.
- ( r ) Accrued board benefit trust
Accrued board benefit trust have been provided at an amount equal to 100% of the amount which would be required to be paid based on the Company's bylaws if all directors and officers exercised board benefit trust on the balance sheet date.
- ( s ) Retirement benefits
Asset and liability for retirement benefits for employees are recorded mainly at the amount calculated based on the retirement benefit obligation and the fair value of the pension plan assets as of balance sheet date.
The retirement benefit obligation for employees is attributed to each period by the benefit formula method over the estimated years of service of the eligible employees. Actuarial gain or loss is amortized in the year following the year in which the gain or loss is recognized primarily by the straight-line method over a period of 5 years, which is within the estimated average remaining years of service of employees.
- ( t ) Significant revenue and expenses
The main performance obligations in key businesses of the Company and its consolidated subsidiaries concerning revenue from contracts with customers is the sales of the parts for electro-communication device and electronic equipment in Japan and abroad. For the sales of these products, revenue is recognized at the point in time when the products are delivered to the customer. However, for sales within Japan of these products, revenue is recognized at the time of shipment in accordance with the alternative treatment prescribed in Paragraph 98 of "the Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition".
- ( u ) Hedge accounting
(1) Method of hedge accounting
Deferral hedge accounting is applied for interest rate swap transactions.
The exceptional treatment is applied for interest rate swap transactions meeting certain conditions.
(2) Hedging instruments and hedged items
Hedging instruments: interest rate swaps
Hedged items: long-term debt subject to interest rate fluctuation risk.
(3) Hedging policy
The Company uses interest rate swaps to hedge risks from interest rate fluctuations on borrowings, only when approved by the management.
(4) Assessment of effectiveness of hedging activities
The Company evaluates the hedge effectiveness by comparing accumulated fluctuations of the hedging instrument and hedged item every quarter.
When the exceptional treatment is applied for interest rate swaps, the assessment of hedge effectiveness is omitted.
- ( v ) Income taxes
Deferred income taxes are recognized based on the differences between financial reporting and the tax bases of the assets and liabilities and are calculated using the enacted tax rates and laws which will be in effect when the differences are expected to reverse.
- ( w ) Per share information
Basic net income per share is computed based on the net income available for distribution to shareholders of common stock and weighted-average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the year. Diluted profit attributable to owners of parent per share is computed based on the profit attributable to owners of parent available for distribution to shareholders and average number of shares of common stock outstanding during each year after giving effect to the dilutive potential of shares of common stock to be issued upon the conversion of convertible bonds.
Net assets per share is computed based on the net assets available for distribution to shareholders of common stock and the number of shares of common stock outstanding at the balance sheet date. Cash dividends per share shown for each period in the consolidated statement of income represent the dividends applicable to the respective period.
- ( x ) Consumption taxes on assets
Nondeductible consumption taxes on assets are expensed in the consolidated financial statements.
- ( y ) Consolidated taxation system
The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries apply consolidated taxation system.
- ( z ) Adoption of tax effect accounting for the transition from the consolidated taxation system to the group tax sharing system.
The Company and its domestic subsidiaries expect to shift to the group tax sharing system from the beginning of the next fiscal year. However for items that have transitioned to the group tax sharing system and those for which the non-consolidated tax payment system have been reviewed in line with the transition to the group tax sharing system, established under the " Act for Partial Revision of the Income Tax Act and Other Acts" (Act No. 8 of 2020), the Company adopts the treatment set forth in Paragraph 3 of the "Practical Solution on the Treatment of Tax Effect Accounting for the Transition from the Consolidated Taxation System to the Group Tax Sharing System" (ASBJ Practical Issues Task Force No. 39, March 31, 2020) not to apply provisions of Paragraph 44 of the "Implementation Guidance on Tax Effect Accounting" (ASBJ Guidance No. 28, February 16, 2018). The amounts of deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are, therefore, based on provisions of the tax code prior to the revision.

In addition, the Company and its domestic subsidiaries expect to adopt "Practical solution on the Accounting and Disclosure under the Group Tax Sharing System" (ASBJ Practical Issues Task Force No. 42, August 12, 2021) from the beginning of the next fiscal year.

(aa) Significant accounting estimates

1. Impairment of fixed assets

(1) Amount recorded in the consolidated financial statements

	Millions of yen		Thousands of U.S. dollars
	2021	2022	2022
Property, plant and equipment	¥ 15,403	¥ 16,190	$ 132,282

Note: Of which, SCI Division (Facilities of remote controls, switches and camera modules): ¥503 million ($4,110 thousand) for the year ended March 31, 2022.

	Millions of yen		Thousands of U.S. dollars
	2021	2022	2022
Impairment loss	¥ 130	¥ 3	$ 25

Note: Of which, SCI Division (Facilities of remote controls, switches and camera modules): ¥– million ($– thousand) for the year ended March 31, 2022.

(2) Other information that facilitates users' understanding of financial statements

( i ) Calculation method

Assets or asset groups that have an indication of impairment are tested for impairment, and when it is determined that an impairment loss should be recognized, the book value is reduced to the recoverable amount and an impairment loss is recorded. The recoverable amount is measured at value in use or net realizable value. Value in use is calculated by discounting future net cash flows estimated based on the future business plan to the present value.

( ii ) Key assumptions

The key assumptions used in estimating future cash flows are forecasts of sales volume and sales prices, which serve the basis of the business plan. The forecast of sales volume is calculated based on the estimated future order documents prepared by the customers. The impact of COVID-19 has been calculated assuming a main scenario in which vaccination will expand and prevention of COVID-19 and economic growth will coexist.

( iii ) Effect on the consolidated financial statements for the next fiscal year ending March 31, 2023

The estimation of projected sales volume, which is one of the key assumptions, is highly uncertain. If the projected sales volume decreases significantly in the future due to the timing as to when the COVID-19 pandemic will subside and the impact that the pandemic will have on the economic environment, or due to changes in the market trend, impairment losses may be incurred in the year ending March 31, 2023.

2. Recoverability of deferred tax assets

(1) Amount recorded in the consolidated financial statements

	Millions of yen		Thousands of U.S. dollars
	2021	2022	2022
Deferred tax assets, net	¥ 92	¥ 126	$ 1,029

Note: The amount before offsetting with deferred tax liabilities is ¥566 million ($4,625 thousand) for the year ended March 31, 2022.

(2) Other information that facilitates users' understanding of financial statements

( i ) Calculation method

The recoverability of deferred tax assets for deductible temporary differences and operating loss carryforwards for tax purposes is determined by estimating taxable income based on future profitability. Estimates of taxable income derived from future profitability are based on future business plans.

( ii ) Key assumptions

The key assumptions used in estimating taxable income are forecasts of sales volume and sales prices, which serve the basis of the business plan. The forecast of sales volume is calculated based on the estimated future order documents prepared by the customers. The impact of COVID-19 has been calculated assuming a main scenario in which vaccination will expand and prevention of COVID-19 and economic growth will coexist.

( iii ) Effect on the consolidated financial statements for the next fiscal year ending March 31, 2023

The estimation of projected sales volume, which is one of the key assumptions, is highly uncertain. If the projected sales volume decreases significantly in the future due to the timing as to when the COVID-19 pandemic will subside and the impact that the pandemic will have on the economic environment, or due to changes in the market trend, changes in estimates of taxable income may result in the reversal of deferred tax assets.

(ab) Change in accounting policies

Application of Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition

"Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition" ((ASBJ statement No.29, March 31, 2020), hereinafter "Revenue Recognition Standard") has been adopted from the beginning of the current fiscal year, and revenue is recognized in the amount expected to be received in exchange for applicable goods or services when control of the promised good or service is transferred to the customer.

As a result, certain of the Companies' subsidiaries previously recognized revenue at the time of shipment, but has changed its method of accounting to recognize revenue at the point in time when the products are delivered to the customer. For sales within Japan of these products, revenue is recognized at the time of shipment in case the term from the shipping to the customers' obtaining of control of the products is normal in accordance with the alternative treatment prescribed in Paragraph 98 of "the Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition" . For supply-for-a-fee transactions, the company previously recognized revenue at the time of transferring of the supplied materials, but has changed its method of accounting to recognize processing fee as revenue at the time of repurchasing of materials.

The Revenue Recognition Standard has been applied effective from the beginning of the current fiscal year in accordance with the transitional treatment prescribed in Paragraph 84 of the Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition, and the cumulative effects of retroactively applying new accounting policies have been reflected in the beginning balance of retained earnings for the current fiscal year. However, as provided for in Paragraph 86 of the Revenue Recognition Standard, the new accounting policies have not been retroactively adopted for contracts in which substantially all revenue amounts have been recognized prior to the beginning of the current fiscal year in accordance with the previous treatment.

In relation to this, “notes and accounts receivable, trade” previously presented in current assets have been reclassified to “notes receivable, trade” and “accounts receivable, trade” in consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2022. However, this change in presentation is not applied in consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2021 in accordance with the transitional treatment provided for in Paragraph 89-2 of the Revenue Recognition Standard.

As a result, in the consolidated balance sheet for the current fiscal year, “net sales” decreased by ¥10 million ($82 thousand), “cost of sales” decreased by ¥46 million ($376 thousand), “operating profit” and “profit before income taxes” increased by ¥36 million ($294 thousand), respectively, and “profit” increased by ¥37 million ($302 thousand). Also, the beginning balance of retained earnings for the current fiscal year increased by ¥15 million ($123 thousand).

In accordance with the transitional treatment provided for in Paragraph 89-3 of the Revenue Recognition Standard, notes related to revenue recognition for the prior fiscal year are omitted.

Application of Accounting Standard for Fair Value Measurement

“Accounting Standard for Fair Value Measurement” ((ASBJ Statement No.30, July 4, 2019) hereinafter “Fair Value Measurement Standard” ) has been adopted from the beginning of the current fiscal year, and new accounting policies prescribed by the Fair Value Measurement Standard will be adopted prospectively in accordance with the transitional treatment prescribed in Paragraph 19 of the Fair Value Measurement Standard and Paragraph 44-2 of the Accounting Standard for Financial Instruments (ASBJ Statement No.10, July 4, 2019). Also, there is no impact on the consolidated financial statement.

In addition, notes regarding the breakdown of fair value of financial instruments by level are included in the Note 16, “Financial Instruments” . However, notes for the prior fiscal year have not been included in accordance with the transitional treatment prescribed in Paragraph 7-4 of the Implementation Guidance on Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments (ASBJ Guidance No.19, July 4, 2019).

(ac) Change in presentation

(Consolidated Balance Sheet)

Lease liabilities previously presented as “other current liabilities” in current liabilities and as “other long-term liabilities” in long-term liabilities have been reclassified to “lease liabilities”, respectively for the year ended March 31, 2022 because of its increased quantitative materiality.

As a result, ¥1,495 million ($12,215 thousand) of “other current liabilities” in current liabilities and ¥723 million ($5,907 thousand) of “other long-term liabilities” in long-term liabilities previously presented in consolidated balance sheet for the year ended March 31, 2021 have been reclassified to ¥53 million ($433 thousand) of “lease liabilities” and ¥1,442 million ($11,782 thousand) of “other current liabilities” and ¥32 million ($261 thousand) of “lease liabilities” and ¥691 million ($5,646 thousand) of “other long-term liabilities” in consolidated balance sheet as of March 31, 2021.

(ad) Additional information

Introduction of Board Benefit Trust

We introduced a new share-based compensation plan, a “Board Benefit Trust (BBT)” (the “Plan” ) for directors (including executive officer, excluding outside directors; “Directors” ) based on the resolution at the 96th General Meeting of Shareholders on June 22, 2018 for the purpose of raising awareness of contributing to the improvement of medium- to long-term business results.

Regarding the accounting treatment for the plan, the gross method is adopted based on the “Practical Solution on Transactions of Delivering the Company’ s Own Stock to Employees, etc. through Trusts” (ASBJ Practical Issue Task Force No.30, March 26, 2015).

(1) Outline of the Plan

The Plan is a share-based compensation plan under which our shares are acquired through a trust (the trust established in accordance with the Plan, the “Trust”) by using the funds contributed by the Company. Directors will receive the Company’s shares through the Trust in accordance with the officer stock benefit rules prescribed by the Company. In principle, Directors will receive benefits, such as the Company’s shares, on their retirement.

(2) The Company’s shares remaining in the Trust

The Company’s shares remaining in the Board Benefit Trust (BBT) are recorded by the Company as treasury stock under net assets at their book value in the BBT (excluding the amount of ancillary expenses). As of March 31, 2021, the book value of the said treasury stock was ¥160 million ($1,307 thousand), and the number of shares was 43,800.

Note 2. U.S. dollar amounts

The U.S. dollar amounts are stated solely for the convenience of the reader at the rate of U.S. $1.00 = ¥122.39, the approximate rate of exchange at March 31, 2022. The translation should not be construed as a representation that the Japanese yen amounts actually represent, have been or could be converted into U.S. dollars at that or any other rate.

Note 3. Inventories

Inventories as of March 31, 2021 and 2022 consisted of the following:

	Millions of yen		Thousands of U.S. dollars
	2021	2022	2022

Note 6. Other current liabilities

Of which, contract liabilities are as follows.

	Millions of yen	Thousands of U.S. dollars
	2022	2022
Contract liabilities	¥ 56	$ 458

Note 7. Retirement benefits plans

The Company and certain of its domestic consolidated subsidiaries have either funded or unfunded defined benefit pension plans and defined contribution benefit pension plans. The Company has funded corporate pension fund plans and defined contribution pension plans. As a defined benefit pension plan, the Company has adopted a cash balance plan. Under the cash balance plan, the plan sponsor contributes money into a plan participant's account based on the points according to the employee's years of service and job performance and the points are calculated with an interest credit that reflects changes in market interest rates. Certain subsidiaries have funded and unfunded lump-sum payment plans and defined contribution pension plans. The simplified method is applied for the calculation of liability for retirement benefits and retirement benefit expense of certain domestic subsidiaries.

The changes in the retirement benefit obligation during the years ended March 31, 2021 and 2022 were as follows:

	2021	2022	2022
Balance at the beginning of the year	¥ 5,877	¥ 5,644	$ 46,115

Note 12. Loss on impairment of fixed assets

An impairment loss is recognized when the carrying amount of an asset exceeds undiscounted future net cash flows which are expected to be generated by such asset. The impairment loss is measured by the amount by which the carrying amount of the asset exceeds its recoverable amount being the higher of the discounted future net cash flows or net realizable value.

For the year ended March 31, 2021, impairment losses were recognized for the following assets.

Asset group	Location	Use	Millions of yen
			2021
			Land	Buildings	Machinery and vehicles	Tooling and office furniture	Leased assets	Right of use assets	Intangible assets	Total
Research & Development Center	Japan	Wireless module production facilities	¥ —	¥ —	¥ —	¥ 2	¥ —	¥ —	¥ —	¥ 2

Total			¥ 42	¥ 48	¥ 7	¥ 10	¥ 1	¥ 13	¥ 5	¥ 130

For the year ended March 31, 2022, impairment losses were recognized for the following assets.

Asset group	Location	Use	Millions of yen							Total
			2022
			Land	Buildings	Machinery and vehicles	Tooling and office furniture	Leased assets	Right of use assets	Intangible assets
SCI Division	Japan	Touch sensor production facilities	¥ —	¥ 3	¥ —	¥ —	¥ —	¥ —	¥ —	¥ 3
Total			¥ —	¥ 3	¥ —	¥ —	¥ —	¥ —	¥ —	¥ 3

Asset group	Location	Use	Thousands of U.S. dollars							Total
			2022
			Land	Buildings	Machinery and vehicles	Tooling and office furniture	Leased assets	Right of use assets	Intangible assets
SCI Division	Japan	Touch sensor production facilities	$ —	$ 25	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ 25
Total			$ —	$ 25	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ —	$ 25

The Company's assets for business operations are categorized into groups on a division-by-division basis and the Company's rental property and idle property on an individual property basis, whereas consolidated subsidiaries' assets for business operations are categorized into groups on a subsidiary-by-subsidiary basis and their rental property and idle property on an individual property basis.

Of the above asset groups, SCI Division (Facilities of touch sensor) suffered declining trends in net sales and income due to intense price competition in the market. The future cash flows from their asset groups were estimated and it was found that they could not generate sufficient profitability to recover the carrying value of the asset groups, and therefore their book value was reduced to the recoverable amounts.

The recoverable amount of the asset group of the SCI Division (Facilities of touch sensor) was measured at value in use, and since no future cash flows are expected, the full amount of the book value of the fixed assets regarding this business is recorded as impairment loss.

Note 13. Income taxes

Income taxes applicable to the Company and its domestic subsidiaries comprised corporation, inhabitants' and enterprise taxes which, in the aggregate, resulted in statutory tax rates of approximately 30.5% for the year ended March 31, 2021 and 2022. A reconciliation between the statutory tax rate and the effective tax rate for the years ended March 31, 2021 and 2022 were as follows.

	2021	2022
Statutory tax rate	30.5%	30.5%

Note 15. Amounts per share

- In the calculation of total net assets and profit per share, the Company's shares remaining in the Board Benefit Trust (BBT), which are recorded as treasury stock under shareholders' equity, are included in the treasury stocks that are deducted in the calculation of the number of shares as of March 31, 2021 and 2022 and the average number of shares for the year ended March 31, 2021 and 2022. In the calculation of total net assets per share, the said treasury stock deducted as of March 31, 2021 and 2022 is 43,800 and 43,800, respectively. In the calculation of profit per share, the said treasury stock deducted for the year ended March 31, 2021 and 2022 is 43,800 and 43,800, respectively.

Note 16. Financial instruments

- Policy for financial instruments

The Company and consolidated subsidiaries manage temporary cash surpluses through low-risk financial assets.

The Company and consolidated subsidiaries raise funds through bank borrowings.

The Company and consolidated subsidiaries use derivatives for the purpose of reducing risk and do not enter into derivatives for speculative or trading purposes.

(2) Types of financial instruments and related risk

Trade receivables - trade notes, electronically recorded monetary claims and trade accounts receivable- are exposed to credit risk in relation to customers. Regarding this risk, the credit management is executed periodically.

Marketable securities and investment securities are exposed to market risk. The fair value of those securities is reported in a board meeting periodically.

Substantially all trade payables - trade notes and accounts payable - have payment due dates within one year.

Short-term loans payable are raised mainly in connection with business activities, and the repayment dates of long-term debt extend up to five years from the balance sheet date and lease liabilities are raised mainly in connection with capital investment. Long-term debt with variable interest rates is exposed to interest rate fluctuation risk. However, to reduce such risk and fix interest expense for long-term debt bearing interest at variable rates, the Company and consolidated subsidiaries utilizes interest rate swap transactions as a hedging instrument. Information regarding the method of hedge accounting, hedging instruments and hedged items, hedging policy, and the assessment of effectiveness of hedging activities is found in Note 1 (u).

Execution and management of derivatives transactions are carried out in accordance with the company rules specifying the transaction authority. In addition, in order to alleviate credit risk, derivative transactions are only dealt with banks with high credit ratings. Although operating liabilities and loans payable are exposed to liquidity risk, the Group's companies are able to manage it by using methods such as preparing monthly cash management plans.

(3) Additional information regarding fair value of financial instruments

The contract amounts, etc. relating to derivatives transactions are described in Note 18. Derivatives themselves do not serve as indicators of market risk involved in derivatives transactions.

Information regarding fair value of financial instruments at March 31, 2021 and 2022 was summarized as follows:

	Millions of yen			Thousands of U.S. dollars
	2021	2022	Difference	2021	2022	Difference

Breakdown of fair value of financial instruments by level

Fair values of financial instruments are categorized into these levels as described below on the basis of the observability and the materiality of the inputs used in the fair value measurement.

Level1: Fair values measured using quoted prices of identical assets or liabilities in active markets among observable valuation inputs

Level2: Fair values measured using inputs other than inputs included within Level 1 among observable valuation inputs

Level3: Fair values measured using unobservable valuation inputs

When several inputs that have significant impact on fair value measurement are used and those inputs are categorized into different levels, the fair value is categorized into the lowest hierarchy level for fair value measurement among those in which each of the inputs belongs.

(1) Financial instruments measured at fair value

Investment securities

Listed stocks are determined by using quoted prices. Fair values of listed stocks are categorized as Level 1 since they are traded in active markets.

Derivatives

The fair value of interest rate swaps and foreign exchange forward contracts are categorized as Level 2 because they are measured using the discounted present value method with observable inputs such as interest rates and exchange rates.

Long-term debt and lease liabilities

Fair values are measured using the discounted present value method based on the total amount of principle and interest, remaining maturity, and interest rates taking into account credit risk, and are categorized as Level 2.

Note 18. Derivatives

As a matter of policy, the Company does not speculate in derivative transactions. The Company does not anticipate nonperformance by any of the counterparties to the derivative transactions, all of whom are leading domestic financial institutions with high bond ratings.

In accordance with the Company's policy, the accounting department controls derivative transactions and requires approval by the director responsible for accounting and the representative directors of the Company. The director who has the responsibility to control the performance and the related risks connected with derivatives reports these to the Management Committee of the Company.

The Company uses interest rate swaps to hedge the risks from interest rate fluctuations on borrowings. The exceptional method of hedge accounting is used to account for those transactions.

Note1: "Others" which includes other parts business is a business segment that is not included in reportable segments.

Note2: The sales by regions is based on customers' locations and is classified by countries or regions.

2. Information providing a basis for understanding revenue arising from contracts with customers

The Company and its consolidated subsidiaries sell the parts for electro-communication device and electronic equipment in Japan and abroad. The satisfied point of performance obligations is the point in time when the products are delivered to the customer because it can be judged that the customer obtains control of the product at the time. However, for sales within Japan of these products, revenue is recognized at the time of shipment in accordance with the alternative treatment prescribed in Paragraph 98 of "the Implementation Guidance on Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition". The consideration for transactions is generally received within approximately 3 months after delivery of the goods. Furthermore, there is no adjustment for the significant financing component concerning receivables arising from contracts with customers.

3. Information about the relationship between the satisfaction of performance obligations under contracts with customers and cash flows from these contracts, and the amount and timing of revenue from contracts with existing customers at the end of the fiscal year that are expected to be recognized in the following fiscal year or beyond

(1) Balance of contract assets and contract liabilities

	Millions of yen	Thousands of U.S. dollars
	2022	2022
Receivables arising from contracts with customers (balance at the beginning of the year)	¥ 12,567	$ 102,680
Receivables arising from contracts with customers (balance at the end of the year)	12,800	104,584
Contract liabilities (balance at the beginning of the year)	138	1,128
Contract liabilities (balance at the end of the year)	¥ 56	$ 458

Contract liabilities mainly relate to advance payments received from customers for sales of tooling based on payment terms.

Contract liabilities are reversed as revenue is recognized.

The revenue recognized during the fiscal year that was included in the balance of contract liabilities at the beginning of the year was ¥138 million ($1,128 thousand). The main reasons for the decrease of ¥81 million ($662 thousand) in contract liabilities in the fiscal year were reversal as revenue is recognized.

(2) Transaction price allocated to remaining performance obligations

At the end of the fiscal year ended March 31, 2022, there is no unsatisfied performance obligations which needs to be noted. Furthermore, the Company and consolidated subsidiaries have been adopted the treatment prescribed in Paragraph 80-22 (1) of "Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition" (ASBJ statement No.29, March 31, 2020) and the contracts which are initially expected to terminate within one year are not included in this notes.

Note 21. Segment information

(Overview)

The reporting segments of the Company and consolidated subsidiaries are designed as business segments whose segregated financial information can be obtained and to which the management reviews to decide on the allocation of managerial and financial resources and to evaluate their financial performance.

The Company and consolidated subsidiaries are primarily engaged in the three divisions as follows;

CS (Connection System) Division: The division produces and sells connectors and jacks.

SCI (Sensing, Communications and Interface) Division: The division produces and sells remote controls, switches, camera modules and touch sensor.

Research & Development Center: The center produces and sells wireless module.

(Changes in reporting segments)

In line with changes in the company organization as of April 1, 2021, the part of other parts business which was previously included in "Other" has been included in "Research & Development Center".

Also, the segment information of the previous fiscal year has been presented based on the reclassification and calculation methods after the change to the reporting segments.

The business segment information is prepared in a manner similar to the accounting treatment as described in Note 1. Segment performance is evaluated based on operating income or loss.

(Application of Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition)

In line with the adoption of "Accounting Standard for Revenue Recognition" from the beginning of the fiscal year and the changing of accounting method which are described in "change in accounting policies", the calculation method of profit or loss of business segment has changed as well.

As a result, in CS Division the sales increased by ¥16 million ($131 thousand), the operating income increased by ¥34 million ($278 thousand) for the current fiscal year compared to the traditional method. In SCI Division the sales decreased by ¥26 million ($212 thousand), the operating income increased by ¥2 million ($16 thousand) for the current fiscal year compared to the traditional method. Also, there are no changes for Research and Development Center.
